Dear Parents/Carers,

Your child will be participating in a school blogging project. Please read the attached information "All Saints School Blogging Policy and Rules – January 2020" before completing the permission form.

Please return the permission form attached as soon as possible so your child can start reaping the rewards of blogging. I'll send out more information about the blogs themselves once permissions have been received.

Thank you,
Mr Slater

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL - PERMISSION TO BLOG

I/we, _____, give permission for my/our son/daughter,
_____, to participate in the All Saints School
blogging project.

I/we understand that:

- Students' first names, photos, work, video and school name MAY be included on the blog.
- Student names WILL NOT be matched with their photo.
- Students' other personal information WILL NOT be included on the blog.
- Posts written by students will be checked by the school blog administrator (Mr Slater) before they are published on the blog.
- All comments have to be approved by Mr Slater before they are included on the blog.
- Students will be encouraged to comment on other class/student blogs with teacher/ parent supervision.
- All students must have parental permission to comment or post on the class blog/other blogs or to have their photo, videos and work appear on the blog.
- Parents who leave comments are asked to use their first name only so as not to identify their child. eg. Please identify yourself in comments as "Jane – Sally's mum" rather than "Jane Brown – Sally's mum".
- All commenters must be polite, respectful and courteous.
- Others' work, images, music or videos will not be used without permission and attribution.
- Parents are asked to proofread comments that students write on blogs at home. Please do not let your child comment on blogs at home without supervision.
- All members of the blogging community are asked to let our teachers know if they feel like any of our guidelines have been breached. School staff are always happy to remove any students' work/images etc. if requested by parents/carers.
