All conversations/meetings are then logged onto the school management system.

The exams officer will send out 'Information Gathering' forms to each subject lead where subject codes, tiers, candidate names, specification title/code, certification codes, coursework/examination units etc... are all recorded. A deadline is set to return this to the exams officer. From this the exams officer will create a central school based spreadsheet, listing accurate information for HOC/SLT to review. Once all has been reviewed and agreed, the Exams Officer will make any applicable changes and then submit all entries to the relevant awarding bodies before the external deadline via the exam boards websites.

For vocational subjects the exams officer will make the required unit entries and registrations as directed by the subject teacher according to the awarding bodies guidance and deadlines.

This information is immediately passed to the EO, who will in turn inform the Assistant Head, Head of Sixth Form and the Invigilator in charge for that paper/assessment. Candidates who miss an exam for medical reasons should seek signed a medical note from their doctor without delay and give it to their EO as quickly as possible, so that it can be used in an application for special consideration should the candidate be deemed to meet the criteria for this by the school. All invigilators are informed, through training, of the process for dealing with absent candidates through training / update meetings. Absent candidates will be clearly recorded by the Invigilator in charge on the attendance register and seating plan.

Candidate Late Arrival Policy

Candidate Responsibilities:

- Internal candidates who are running late for their exam should call the school office as soon as possible on 01692 582083 to advise why they are late and give their expected time of arrival. Candidates must not leave a voicemail, but rather ensure they have explained their situation to a member of office staff if the Exams Officer is not available. All candidates who arrive late should report to the front office. Candidates should not go straight to the exam venue but wait to be escorted by a member of SLT, as instructed by the Exams Officer.

Centre Responsibilities:

- Using the Seating Plan and Exam Register the Invigilator responsible will identify any absences before the start of an exam. In the case of absence, the Invigilator will immediately contact the EO by phone to check whether the candidate has withdrawn from the exam.
- If the candidate has not withdrawn the EO will then contact the Head of Centre to further check whether the candidate should be present or not.
 - If there is no clear explanation for the candidate's absence, a member of SLT will give phone home and if agreed by the HOC go to pick up the candidate.
- Updates will be passed back to the EO, HOC, SLT and invigilators.

JCQ regulations state that:

- "A candidate who arrives after the start of the examination may be allowed to enter the examination room and sit the examination. This is entirely at the discretion of the centre."
- "A candidate who arrives after the start of the examination should be allowed the full time for the examination, depending on the centre's organisational arrangements and 25 provided that adequate supervision arrangements are in place."

At All Saints we will normally allow late candidates into the exam venue to sit the examination. The candidate will be given the full time allowed for the exam, however the candidate will be warned that the exam board may not accept their work. The EO/Invigilator will conduct an exam briefing for the late candidate outside the exam venue, including the normal reminder to the candidate about taking unauthorised materials into the exam room. All invigilators are informed, through training, of the process for dealing with late and very late candidates through training / update meetings. Invigilators will ensure that confirmed absent candidates are clearly marked as such on the attendance register and seating plan. A late candidate's new start and finish times will be written clearly by an invigilator on the white board at the front of the exam room. All relevant information will be recorded by the invigilator in the exam room incident log. The EO will ensure that invigilation supervision is in place for the duration of the candidate's exam.

Very Late Candidates

JCQ regulations state that a candidate will be considered very late if they arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for an examination which lasts one hour or more, i.e. after 10.00am for a morning examination or after 2.30pm for an afternoon examination. (JCQ Published Start Times are 9am and 1.30pm).

For examinations that last less than one hour, a candidate will be considered very late if they arrive after the awarding body's published finishing time for the examination.

Where we have been informed that a candidate is going to arrive "very late" for an exam, the parent/carer will be advised by the Exams Officer as quickly as possible to keep the candidate under supervision at all times until he is handed over to a member of centre staff.

Parents/Carers will also be instructed to:

- Immediately take away any internet-enabled devices (e.g. mobile phone, tablet, smart watch, laptop, PC etc.)
- Personally drive or escort the candidate from home to school, using a school vehicle.
- Ensure that the candidate is fully supervised as early as possible and preferably from the published starting time of the exam, until the candidate is handed over to a member of staff at All Saints – the parent/carer should make a written note of what time the candidate is supervised from.

Both the candidate and the parent/carer who has supervised them will be asked to sign a letter confirming that the above measures have been put in place. All Saints School will also ask the parent/carer and the candidate to provide handwritten, signed statements giving details of the time the candidate was supervised from and by whom, and the reason for his late arrival.

The Exams Officer will:

- ensure that candidates who arrive very late for an exam are reported to the awarding body through the JCQ Centre Admin Portal (CAP) within 7 days of the exam having taken place
- Warn candidates that their work may not be accepted by the awarding body

The awarding body will consider each case individually in light of statements from the parent/carer, the candidate and the centre.

Candidates and their parents/carers should be clear that the awarding body may not accept their work.

JCQ regulations state that:

When deciding whether to accept any of the work done by a candidate who arrives very late, the awarding body will pay particular attention to how far it can be sure that the security of the examination has been maintained. Given that candidates may have left the examination room one hour after the awarding body's published starting time*, the awarding body is unlikely to be able to accept the work of very late candidates unless they have been adequately supervised.

For a candidate who is persistently late, SLT may have a meeting with this candidate and/or parents/carers and try to come up with a solution as to how the candidate might be on time for future exams e.g. Phoning in the morning before the exams or arranging for someone to collect the candidate.

This must not be the candidate's subject teacher or a subject expert for the examination in question. These candidates may be allowed extra time at the discretion of the centre to compensate for their temporary absence. A list is kept of when any student leaves an exam room – the start and end time of the absence is recorded. After the exam this record is kept with the attendance register and seating plan.

Allowing time to be compensated where a candidate leaves the exam room temporarily, accompanied by a member of centre staff, is at the discretion centre. Having a documented policy ensures:

The needs of the candidate will be taken into account prior to the exam to determine whether the candidate will be able to sit their exams in the examination room alongside their peers and to identify any risk factors regarding behaviour or self-regulation that may arise. Alternative arrangements for invigilation may be made if necessary.

All of the candidates are well known to centre staff and staff will be able to recognise and assess any emotional or behavioural concerns that the candidate presents with on the day of the examination. If any concerns are raised, the HOC will determine the best course of action, based on our students' very individual and specific needs.

The HOC has the authority to remove a candidate from the examination room, but will only do so if the candidate is in distress or if the candidate would disrupt others by remaining in the room. (ICE 24)

Where a candidate is being disruptive, the invigilator will warn the candidate that he/she may be removed from the examination room. The candidate must also be warned that the awarding body will be informed and may decide to penalise them, which could include disqualification. All incidents will be recorded on the exam incident log.

All unclaimed certificates will be held in the centre's secure storage facility for 12 months from the date of issue. After 12 months, all unclaimed certificates will be destroyed in a confidential manner. A record of all unclaimed certificates that have been destroyed will be kept for 4 years from the date of destruction.

Appendices

Appendix A

The Disability Discrimination Act (DDA), special needs and access arrangements

DDA

The Disability Discrimination Act 2005 extends the application of the DDA to general qualifications.

All exam centre staff must ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

Special needs

A candidate's special needs requirements are determined by the SENCO.

The SENCO will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam, and the date of that exam.

The SENCO and Exams Officer can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates may be granted during the course and in the exam.

Access arrangements

Making special arrangements for candidates to take exams is the responsibility of the SENCO and the Exams Officer.

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the SENCO, supported by the Exams Officer.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the SENCO with the Exams Officer.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates will be organised by the Exams Officer and supported by the SENCO.

Appendix B

Coursework and appeals against internal assessments

Coursework

Candidates who have to prepare portfolios should do so by the end of the course or centre-defined date.

Subject Coordinators and subject leads will ensure all coursework is ready for despatch at the correct time and keep a record of what has been sent when and to whom.

Marks for all internally assessed work are retained by the Subject Coordinators, overseen by the Curriculum Manager. All results are then saved onto the staff drive for the HOC to review.

Appeals against internal assessments

The centre is obliged to publish a separate procedure on this subject, which is available from the exams office.

The main points are:

- appeals will only be considered if they apply to the process leading to an assessment. There is no appeal against the mark or grade awarded
- candidates may appeal if they feel their coursework has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
 - appeals should be made in writing by 30 June to the Head of Centre (or Exams Officer if HOC isn't present) who will decide whether the process used conformed to the necessary requirements
- the Head of Centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the Exams Officer and recorded for awarding body inspection.

Appendix C

Emergency Evacuation Procedure for exams taking place in the main school.

The invigilators must take the following action in an emergency such as a fire alarm or a bomb alert.

- Stop all the candidates from writing.
- Collect the attendance register.
- Evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate SLT member, where a register will then be re-taken by the invigilators.
- Advise candidates to leave all question papers and scripts in the examination room. Candidates must be advised to close their answer booklet.
- Candidates should leave the room in silence.
- Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination.
- In the unlikely event that exam students need to be evacuated from the exams room, they will be escorted in silence and will not communicate with each other, to the village hall Lessingham (pictured below).

- Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted.
- If there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts) to another place to finish the examination.
- If/when the exam is re-started, allow the candidates the full working time set for the examination.
- Make a full report of the incident and of the action taken, and send to the relevant awarding body
