Adopted by resolution of the All Saints School Lessingham Advisory Board on 25 October 2019

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 All Saints school Lessingham is controlled by Directors who are accountable to the Department for Education and have overall responsibility and ultimate decision-making authority for all the work of the School.

1.2 In order to assist with the discharge of their responsibilities, the school has established an Advisory Board. The Directors may review these terms of reference at any time but shall review them at least annually. Any review will take into account the views of the Advisory Board.

1.3 Specifically, the Advisory Board exists to:

- a. Offer support and advice in the key areas of ISS whilst holding no statutory responsibility
- b. Support the school in complying with statutory ISS and Ofsted standards
- c. Assist in developing accountability, vision, ethos and strategic direction
- d. Utilise the various skills of the Board to enable the senior leadership team to focus on the areas of:

- Quality of education
- SMSC/CC
- Student welfare
- Staffing and safer recruitment
- Premises and finance

1.4 The board will provide non-executive advice and support.

1.5 The directors on the board will manage the performance of the headteacher and assist in setting annual targets. The review body will also include a member(s) of the Advisory Board.

1.6 The board will actively challenge and support the headteacher in monitoring school and student performance and assist in setting whole school targets.

1.7 The board will meet half termly in a minuted meeting forum.

1.8 Board members will undertake to support on a specific ISS area and to visit the school to support in this area, reporting this to the full board within the meeting forum.

1.9 These terms of reference may only be amended by the Directors.

2. CONSTITUTION OF THE ADVISORY BOARD

2.1 Members of the Advisory Board shall be known as “advisors”.

2.2 Directors have the right to appoint such persons to the Advisory Board as they shall determine from time to time. In making any such appointment Directors shall consider the skill set of any appointee and where appropriate consult with the Advisory Board members about the proposed appointee.

2.3 Subject to clause 2.2, the composition of the Advisory Board for the school shall be as follows:

2.3.1 the Headteacher of the School and the Directors

2.3.2 up to 6 co-opted members¹.

2.4 The procedure for the appointment and the removal of advisors shall be as set out in Annex 1 and may be changed and or varied by the Trustees by ordinary resolution from time to time.

3. PROCEEDINGS OF THE ADVISORY BOARD

The proceedings for meetings of the Advisory Board shall be as set out in Annex 2.

4. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ADVISORY BOARD AND DIRECTORS

4.1 The Advisory Board shall in carrying out its role:

4.1.1 Support in promoting high standards and aim to ensure that children are attending a successful school which provides them with a good education and supports their well-being;

4.1.2 be responsible to the Directors for its actions and follow the expectations of advisors as laid down by the Directors in the Code of Conduct;

4.1.3 aim to establish that it is competent, accountable, independent and diverse and that it promotes best practice;

4.1.4 aim to ensure that its members promote and uphold high standards of conduct, probity and ethics; and

4.1.5 report to and supply such information as may be reasonably required from time to time by the Directors for the purposes of monitoring and managing its role as set out in these Terms of Reference.

4.2 Directors shall support the work of the Advisory Board by:

4.2.1 setting a clear strategic vision to allow members to set and achieve its own aims and objectives within such vision;

4.2.2 ensuring that systems are put in place to allow the advisors to be presented with timely and appropriate data to allow the Advisory Board to analyse the school's performance in order to support and challenge the Headteacher and the senior leadership team of the school; and

4.2.3 ensure that the advisors have access to high quality training.

4.3 Without prejudice to the Directors' other rights to remove any member and the Directors' rights to amend these Terms of Reference at any time, where the Directors have concerns about the performance of the Advisory Board they may amongst other actions, and having given reasonable notice in writing:

4.3.1 require the Advisors to adopt and comply with an action plan in such form as is determined by the Directors;

4.3.2 suspend or remove any or all of the matters delegated to the Advisory Board.

4.4 Directors may require action where:

4.4.1 the school has failed to meet the targets as laid out in the School Improvement and Development plan; and

4.4.2 where the composition of the Advisory Board or the way it is functioning in the opinion of Directors is such that it is unable to discharge its duties and/or responsibilities.

4.5 Directors may vary the matters delegated where:

4.5.1 the Advisory Board acts outside its delegated powers and limitations;

4.5.2 the advisors are in breach of these Terms of Reference.

4.6 Directors may remove advisors where:

4.6.1 the advisory board is in material breach of these Terms of Reference or has persistently breached any part of these Terms of Reference.

4.7 The circumstances listed in paragraphs 4.4, 4.5 and 4.6 are illustrative only and shall not limit the rights of directors to suspend or remove any or all of the matters delegated to the Advisory Board or any or all of the Advisors. In circumstances where directors have to take such action it will be communicated in writing.

5 DELEGATED POWERS

General principles

5.1 In the exercise of its delegated powers and functions, the Advisors of the Advisory Board shall:

5.1.1 support the SLT in ensuring that the activities of the school are conducted in accordance with the terms of the company (and by Mrs Judith Gardiner), any agreement entered into with the Department for Education;

5.1.2 work closely with the Directors and act with integrity, objectivity and honesty in the best interests of the school;

5.1.3 keep confidential all information of a confidential nature obtained by them relating to the school.

5.2 The powers retained by the Directors and delegated from them to the Advisory Board shall be as follows:

5.2.1 in respect of the school, Annex 3 sets out the powers retained by the Directors, the powers delegated to Headteacher and the Advisory Board.

5.3 For the avoidance of doubt, where a power is not expressly delegated to the Headteacher or Advisory Board it will be deemed to have been retained by the Directors regardless of whether it is specified in Annex 3.

5.4 Annex 3 may be reviewed by the Directors at any time but shall be reviewed at least annually. Directors reserve the right to remove or alter any delegation at any time, whilst having due regard to, but not being bound by, the views of the Advisory Board.

5.5 Notwithstanding the application of any provision of these Terms of Reference, if the Chair of the Advisory Board (or the Vice Chair) is of the opinion that a matter of urgency exists and a delay in exercising the function would likely be seriously detrimental to the interests of the school, any student or their parent or a person who works at the school, then they may exercise any function of the Advisory Board which can be delegated to an individual or any function relating to the exclusion of students after consultation with the Directors.

- c) in the case of the Vice Chair, they are appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of the Chair.

4.4 Where the Chair is absent from any meeting or there is at the time a vacancy in the office of the Chair, the Vice Chair shall act as the chair for the purposes of the meeting. Where the Vice Chair is also absent from the meeting or there is at the time a vacancy in the office of Vice Chair, the advisors of the Advisory Board shall elect one of their number to act as chair for the purposes of that meeting.

Annex 2 – Proceedings of the Advisory Board

1. Meetings

1.1 The Advisory Board shall meet at least once in every half term and shall hold such other meetings as may be necessary.

1.2 Meetings of the Advisory Board shall be convened by the Clerk to the Advisory Board, who shall send the members written notice of the meeting and a copy of the agenda at least seven clear days in advance of the meeting. Where there are matters demanding urgent consideration, the Chair or, in their absence, the Vice-Chair, may waive the need for seven days' notice of the meeting and substitute such notice as they think fit.

1.3 Any advisor shall be able to participate in meetings of the advisors by telephone or video conference provided that he/she has given reasonable notice to the Clerk of the Advisory board and that the advisors have access to the appropriate equipment. In such circumstances, the advisor shall be recorded as being present in the minutes of the meeting.

1.4 The convening of a meeting and the proceedings conducted thereat shall not be invalidated by reason of any individual not having received written notice of the meeting or a copy of the agenda thereof or any defect in the election, appointment or nomination of any person serving on the Advisory Board.

2. Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Advisory Board, and any vote on any matter at such a meeting, shall be four of the advisors of the Advisory Board. The quorum must include one director and the Headteacher.

3 Conflicts of Interest

3.1 Any member who has or may have any direct or indirect duty or personal interest (including but not limited to any Personal Financial Interest (as defined below)) which conflicts or may conflict with his duties as an advisor of the advisory board shall disclose that fact to the Advisory Board as soon as he becomes aware of it. A person must absent himself from any discussions of the Advisory Board in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his duty to act solely in the interests of the school and any duty or personal interest (including but not limited to any Personal Financial Interest).

4 Minutes of meetings

4.1 At every meeting of the Advisory Board the minutes of the last meeting shall be taken as the first agenda item after any apologies and, if agreed to be accurate, shall be signed as a true record.

4.2 The Clerk to the Advisory Board shall ensure that a copy of the agenda for every meeting of the Advisory Board, the draft minutes of every such meeting (if they have been approved by the Chair of that meeting), the signed minutes of every such meeting and any report, document or other paper considered at any such meeting are, as soon as is reasonably practicable, made available to the Clerk of the board.
