

Out of school activities

Local libraries are a good resource for young people and families, offering a warm safe space and a variety of activities. Some libraries also offer essential packs for customers requiring period products.

See what your local library offers by following the link below.

<https://www.norfolk.gov.uk/libraries-local-history-and-archives/libraries/your-local-library>

Girlguiding
Norfolk county

The local guiding and scouting associations are good places to start for out of school inclusive social activities and clubs.

<https://www.girlguidingnorfolk.org.uk/>

<https://www.norfolkscouts.org.uk/>

Benjamin Foundation

<https://benjaminfoundation.co.uk/service-area/youth/>

YMCA Norfolk

<https://www.ymcanorfolk.org/communities-team/youth-services/>

Broadland Youth Choir

Broadland Youth Choir

<https://www.broadlandyouthchoir.co.uk/>

<https://www.activenorfolk.org/organisations/big-norfolk-holiday-fun-providers/>

It is important to remember that if your child has an EHCP, they are entitled to Short Breaks funding which can help towards costs of out of school activities and clubs.

Please see the link below to find further details and apply.

<https://www.norfolk.gov.uk/children-and-families/send-local-offer/health-and-social-care/social-care/short-breaks>