Dear Year 7 parents and carers

I am writing to let you know of the arrangements for your child's class, when they progress into Year 8 in September.

As you already know, the current Year 7 consists of classes 7a and 7b, but from September the year group will be more integrated and come together as one class, 'Year 8'.

However, there will still be certain subjects (e.g. Science, Philosophy and Ethics, Humanities, Art, Music and Drama) where the class will be divided into two alternating groups, which will vary across the subjects.

These groups are being planned and decided by the relevant teachers of those subjects.

We are already carrying out activities and classes with the two groups together, to encourage the feeling of unity in preparation for September.

There will be more details to follow but meanwhile if you have any particular concerns or questions, please don't hesitate to call us.

Kind regards

Ms. S. Dangerfield
Headteacher
